to continue uninterrupted. Only criterion followed, he states, is whether or not new regime has effective internal control, adding that "we slip into recognition." British Embassy gave routine note to Afghan Foreign Ministry July 19 requesting customs clearance for DCM's household effects shipment. Note was addressed to republic of Afghanistan. When queried by protocol office as to whether this did not represent diplomatic recognition, UK Embassy officer apparently replied, "well I suppose it does."

4. British here report that a BBC broadcast in Persian describes alleged meeting between Pak President Bhutto and King Zahir in Rome, following which King is said to have "disappeared." Would appreciate soonest any confirmation this report and any related information.
